

Coming Together Feast of Tabernacles!

FESTIVAL OF SUKKOT

September 23rd – 30th, 2010

Many Branches from One Vine ~ Many Organizations, All One Body.

This year we have an exciting speaking list of experienced Torah teachers, inspirational speakers and younger speakers – all with different Church of God and Messianic backgrounds. We're all coming together in zeal and love to worship God and share Messiah's Good News with you!

Welcome brethren, from many organizations and independent groups! Join us in a spiritual and unifying feast of peace and joy, for we are all one in Messiah! Two can walk together, when they agree to do so! Come learn with us, pray with us, sing with us and contribute to our Festival of Joy, as we experience a millennial foreshadow of the Kingdom of God (Col 2:16-17).

We have many activities planned to enhance our fellowship, as we walk with God together. The depth of the musical talent available to us this year will enhance our praise, as we sing and bless God's Name. And the formal and informal Bible studies will be deep, meaningful and sprinkled with peace. Everyone can feel safe to join in.

This year we're celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles at the incredibly beautiful Embassy Suites Hotel & Resort on Mandalay Beach! Located just a short drive south of Santa Barbara, California, Embassy Suites Hotel & Resort is nestled along the ocean near Channel Islands Harbor and beautiful Mandalay Beach, in Oxnard. This area has a reputation for attracting tourists' year around – and for good reason. If you would like a leisurely walk on the beach – just step out of your luxurious room and you are there. If you like to walk old-town streets and shop unique merchants while enjoying a wide variety of dining options – Santa Barbara will appease your taste. Or if you want to feel like you're in a small European Dutch Village, visit the quaint village town of Solvang just up the road from Santa Barbara. If you want to enjoy Disneyland or one of the other theme parks – they can be reached in two hours or less. You can arrange a tour and some wine tasting at one of the areas many vineyards or go for a round of golf with some friends. If you simply wish to watch the sunset and relax pool-side or let the waves tickle your toes, you're at the right place. The millennial setting, the suite style accommodations, and the ballroom meeting space, all combine to compliment the friendship and fellowship of people coming to worship God at His festival of joy. The Festival studies and messages will be millennially on target, deeply meaningful, and straight from God's Word.

Book fast – we have negotiated special king room rates starting at only $139! Each room has separate sleeping quarters from the living area, a hide-a-bed couch in the living area, two baths, a mini-fridge, wet-bar and microwave oven. Each room also includes two hot cook-to-order breakfasts each morning in the restaurant. Larger rooms are also available. The ocean view is fantastic!

We have provided a link to the Embassy Suites Hotel & Resort for your convenience. If you call, be sure to mention you're with the Church of God in Peace & Truth to receive your special rates. You'll save money by booking soon; these reduced priced rooms will go quickly.
